Dor Film is a production company founded in 1988 by Danny Krausz and Milan Dor with the aim of creating an innovative production studio for young Austrian directors. It consists of a 20-person team which provides production, project development and film marketing services, as well as support at international festivals. The company has set up a studio for audio-visual post production called ZAP in 1996. It has also expanded to Germany with the establishment of Dor Film in Munich and Cologne.
