The Année France-Vietnam has been launched in Hanoi, with a French season programme to run in Vietnam including many cultural events running till December 2013. It will be followed by a Vietnam Season in France in 2014.

Organised to mark the 40th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between France and Vietnam, the Year will be marked with a wide range of events in all sectors, notably in the cultural sector, education and other fields. The programme features architecture, fashion, design, cultural and creative industries linking France and Vietnam.

You can read more about the programme and download documents in French and Vietnamese.
