open call

For the 7th time, the ZEBRA Poetry Film Festival is inviting entries for the competition to find the best poetry films. To qualify for entry, films should be short films based on poems. The total value of the prizes in the competition is € 13,000.

From among the films submitted, a Programme Committee will nominate the films to be entered for the Competition and select the films for the various sections of the festival programme. The winners will be chose by an international jury.

The prizes that will be awarded are:

- ZEBRA Prize for the Best Poetry Film, donated by the Literaturwerkstatt Berlin
- the Goethe Film Prize, donated by the Goethe Institut
- the Ritter Sport Film Prize, donated by Alfred Ritter GmbH & Co. KG
- the prize for the Best Film for Tolerance, donated by the German Foreign Office
- ZEBRINO – the prize for the Best Film for Children and Young People
- the Audience Prize awarded by the radioeins jury

The Festival is also inviting entries of films based on this year's »Festival poem«, »Love in the Age of the EU« by Björn Kuhligk. The directors of the three best films will be invited to Berlin to meet the poet and have the opportunity to present and discuss their films. You can find the poem with a sound recording and various translations here.

The closing date for entries for all the Competitions is 25 April 2014.

You can find the full conditions of entry and the entry form here.

All films submitted are automatically considered for all selection processes!
