Portuguese Institute of Museums and Conservation (IPMC)

IPMC manages museums nation-wide covering art, archaeology and ethnology. Its role is to provide museums with conservation conditions, in accordance with the demanding technical criteria, but also comfortable and attractive spaces for museum visitors.

The IPMC website links to Portuguese museums, the IPMC publications, events and initiatives as well as to "Matriznet", a virtual visit to the collections and temporary exhibits. All the information is presented in Portuguese language.
