

This guide explores the evolving intersection of arts and environmental stewardship in India, mapping key trends, opportunities, and challenges in this dynamic field. It delves into the diverse ways artistic expressions are being harnessed to address ecological concerns, from traditional folk art to contemporary multimedia interventions. By amplifying urgent environmental narratives, advocating policy shifts, and mobilising communities toward sustainable living, artists are playing a pivotal role in shaping a greener, more equitable future.

ORGANISATIONS

Khoj International
Artists' Association
New Delhi

All Living Things
Environmental Film
Festival (ALT EFF)
Maharashtra

Cartist
Rajasthan

sā Ladakh Biennale
Ladakh

Eco Roots Foundation
New Delhi

5waraj
New Delhi

Environmentalist
Foundation of India
Tamil Nadu

Disappearing Dialogues West Bengal

Hunnarshala
Foundation
Gujarat

Serendipity Arts Foundation
Goa

St+art Foundation
New Delhi

The Living Waters
Museum
Maharashtra

Khamir
Gujarat

Artsforward
West Bengal and Karnataka

Contact Base
West Bengal

Threads of Innovation

Gujarat and Trondheim, Norway

