Virtual edition

The 2021 virtual edition ISPA Congress - IMAGINE the Arts - takes place online 11-15 January 2021. Registration for ISPA International Society for the Performing Arts 2021 closes on 4th January.

In 2021 we will explore the opportunities for the arts following a year of crisis, isolation, inequity, and realization. Highlighting the performing arts' resiliency and innate creativity, we will reflect upon the sustainability of our leadership, practice, and environment. Empathy, values, social justice, and economy will be highlighted as we consider our future in this uncharted territory. Through our first fully virtual congress, let us imagine the arts and move forward, together.

This year, two sessions will take place for each of our live-stream sessions at different times to allow delegates from around the world to join at times of your convenience.
