Amsterdam | IETM plenary meeting

Live Arts in Digital Times - the theme of the IETM Spring Plenary Meeting in Amsterdam 14-17 April. How does the digital revolution challenge our creative practices and production, our marketing and audiences' habits? How do technologic developments open doors for imagination and gain new creative possibilities? Live arts in Digital times will be the main theme of the next IETM Spring Plenary Meeting in Amsterdam, 14-17 April 2016. In collaboration with the National Dutch Theatre Festival, we will create a platform for enriching debate that will empower you with ideas, skills and courage to take advantage of the technological developments of these times. Besides, you will enjoy a vibrant mix of the very best Dutch performances in a special programme curated for IETM Amsterdam, presenting over 21 companies. And of course, there will be lots of opportunities for informal networking. The pre-meeting on April 13 will take you over the famous Afsluitdijk to the city of Leeuwarden, European Capital of Culture 2018 and present you an inspiring insight into the city's philosophy. We expect you there! We would recommend you to book in advance to get an affordable hotel room or airbnb as those are limited in Amsterdam.
