ASEM Cultural Festival: 2019 | Poong Ryu

A performance blending traditional Korean dance and music

Dance and Music
(duration: 60m)

Saturday, 14
December
2019

CentroCentro -
Auditorio Caja De
Musica
Madrid, Spain

The Poong-Ryu performance is a creative project by two Korean companies: Yunmyunghwa Dance Company and Gukak E_sang. Yunmyunghwa Dance Company is known for its wide repertoire based on Korean traditional dance, while Gukak E_sang specialises in disseminating Gukak, a form of traditional Korean music.

The show brings together 15 artists to present a unique performance of traditional dance and music, highlighting the artistic diversity of the Republic of Korea. In this performance, traditional music and dance such as the Dance of the Royal Court of Korea, the fan dance and folk dance, are blended with modern rhythms. Pansori Epic Chant, included in the list of UNESCO's Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity, is also included in the repertory.

To connect traditional music and dance with younger generations, Korean artists often tend to break away from established artistic rules, such that new forms of expression are created. This performance has the support of the Embassy of the Republic of Korea, Korean Cultural Center in Madrid and Korean Traditional Performing Arts Foundation.
