Beyond Us versus Them - The Role of Culture in a Divided Europe

In 2017, ifa (Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen) is celebrating its hundredth anniversary. A public conversation will be held in Brussels: Beyond Us versus Them – The Role of Culture in a Divided Europe on 2 May 2017 at 6.30 pm. Registration is open. Populism, extremism and Euroscepticism: To what extent can the cultural sector counteract these increasing divisions, which can be understood as an internal threat to the European project? What new forms of cultural cooperation would such a role require? This event will continue last year's stimulating discussion at the "European Angst", organised by the Goethe-Institut in Brussels, as well as ifa's previous event on the role of culture in the European Union's external relations. Keynote: Adam Broomberg, Artist, "Hands Off Our Revolution" Venue: Representation of the State of Baden-Württemberg to the European Union Rue Belliard 60 - 62 B-1040 Brussels The public conversation will be followed by a "100 years ifa" reception with DJ Dunya and saxophonist Vincèn Robin. Registration until 26 April ifa (Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen) is committed to peaceful and enriching coexistence between people and cultures worldwide. We promote art and cultural exchange in exhibitions, dialogue and conference programs. As a competence centre for international cultural relations, ifa connects civil societies, cultural practices, art, media and science. We initiate, moderate and document discussions on international cultural relations.

The ifa has a global network and counts on long-term cooperation. It is supported by the Federal Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany, the state of Baden-Württemberg and its capital Stuttgart.
