BMW Young Asian Artists Series Part III | Singapore Tyler Print Institute

BMW Asia and the Singapore Tyler Print Institute are proud to present The BMW Young Asian Artists Series III [3 parts] featuring artists, Genevieve Chua, Lyra Garcellano and R.E. Hartanto led by Chief Curator, Heman Chong (artist from first BMW YAAS). Started in 2005, this is one of the longest arts partnerships in Singapore enabling young, promising Asian artists to make their mark. BMW YAAS III empowered artists to push their conceptual developments and produce fresh, innovative works of art with the support of curators and STPI's workshop expertise. Artist walkthrough: 12 November 2:30pm at STPI Gallery Led by Chief Curator Heman Chong with co-curators Joselina Cruz and Agung Hujatnikajennong Free admission. -- The Singapore Tyler Print Institute (STPI) is an international publisher and dealer of fine art prints and works on paper. With its unique facility and dedicated team, STPI collaborates with outstanding artists from around the world to push the technical and aesthetic frontiers of printmaking and papermaking, creating edition prints and unique works on paper. *Source: Singapore Tyler Print Institute Image courtesy of R.
