China Arts Festival in the EU

Between May and December 2017, the 3rd edition of the China Arts Festival in the EU is organised with events taking place in Belgium | France | Hungary | UK. The festival is hosted by the Europe-China "One Belt One Road" Culture & Tourism Development Committee, Committee of China Arts Festival in the EU. The China Arts Festival in the EU is an innovative initiative, aiming to develop and strengthen the relationship between China and the EU through cultural-oriented events. A series of events takes place in Europe, and mainly in Brussels, during the Festival since 2015, year of its first edition. In 2017, the 3rd edition will last from May to December and will include exhibitions, movie screenings and performances, offering a diversified program of enchanting discoveries to the local public. To learn more about the events programme, follow China Arts Festival EU on Facebook
