The Chinese European Art Center (CEAC) in Xiamen City, China celebrates its 15 Years Anniversary with an Exhibition presenting 19 artists from Europe and China. The exhibition runs at CEAC 8-29 November 2014.

Artists: Cathelijn van Goor, Chantal Spit, Hanne Tyrmi, Jaring Lokhorst, Jing Jin, Katrin Korfmann, Lotte Geeven, Marjan Laaper, Marianne Lammersen, Meiya Lin, Nick Renshaw, Paul Kooiker, Pieter Holstein, Qin Jian, Sigurður Guðmundsson, Sylvie Zijlmans & Hewald Jongenelis, Scarlett Hooft Graafland, Wei Na.

For fifteen years, the Chinese European Art Center has hosted and premiered international artists from all over the world. With studios, exhibitions, contemporary film festivals, concerts, lectures, workshops and an artists-in-residence program, the CEAC plays a central role in southeast China's cultural landscape. The CEAC is widely known for its pioneering role in China as a non-commercial art space and the excellent guidance it provides for artists conducting research and producing their art at work sites and factories in China. Residency opportunities in a range of artistic disciplines are available at CEAC throughout the year. See website for details -residency applications are accepted on an ongoing basis and other calls are announced regularly.
