Copenhagen | Creative Business Cup | International Finals 2013

 cbc2013 Creative Business Cup is a competition for entrepreneurs from the creative industries all over the world. Every participating country will send the national winner to international finals. The international Creative Business Cup finals 2013 will take place in Copenhagen November 18th-20th. In each country, a National Host (NH) arranges a national business concept contest for entrepreneurs within the creative industries. The winner from each country is sent to the international final, to be held in November 2013 in Denmark, in order to present his/her business concept to the international jury, thereby competing for a number of prizes and the title of the world's best entrepreneur within the creative industries. Among the National Winners competing in the 2013 Creative Business Cup International Finals are creative industry entrepreneurs from Belgium, Austria, Bulgaria, Denmark, Malaysia, Philippines, Ireland, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Russia, Poland, Spain, Sweden and the UK. The final was held for the first time in 2012 with 19 participating countries. The goals of the Creative Business Cup are to: • Strengthen the business skills of entrepreneurs within the creative industries • Promote entrepreneurship within the creative industries • Promote winners and role models During the three days in Copenhagen the competitors and delegations will have the opportunity to meet other passionate creatives from all over the world.
