Creative Skills Week 2025 (CSW2025) is a meeting point for the cultural and creative industries (CCIs). It offers a platform to share knowledge, shape future competences, and promote new approaches to lifelong learning, re-skilling, and up-skilling.

Taking place in Prague and online from 22 to 26 September 2025, CSW2025 brings together educators, policymakers, sector leaders, artists, students, and learners of all kinds to collaborate across boundaries, co-create new learning pathways (CYANOTYPES Framework), and build skills for a resilient, future-ready sector.

The online programme includes:

- Design Strategies for a Sustainable Future: A Collaborative Model for Sustainability Education in Design

- Imaginaries in Transition Creative- and artistic methods as Key Skills for Societal Challenges
- Empowering networks with digital skills: reusing digital heritage of Europeana and capacity building practices from Una Europa researchers
- The role of social dialogue in enhancing access to training in the cultural and creative sectors
- Contextualising 'skill' in arts education within an EDI framework
- Creative Europe Programme
- Mapping the Creative Skills Gap in Greece and Cyprus
- Navigating Digitisation: Curriculum & Mindset Transformation in Higher Music Education
- Trainers Sandbox: Design, test, and upgrade training skills for CCI
- Online Project Marketplace
- Reclaiming the Future: Youth, Creativity, and Renewal
- Create in a mindful way: turn your sketch into an AI project
- Infodemic - A videogame to fight disinformation
- The live-streamed Opening Plenary directly from Prague
