The 2nd International Conference on 'Cultural Sustainable Tourism' will be held ONLINE from 15-17 October. Participants are welcome to join the conference through video conferencing.

Balancing between the society, environment, and tourism in order to lessen the negative impacts, and have more positive effects, can only be achieved through spreading creativity, and cultural diversity, through maintaining awareness for the importance of cultural tourism and their everlasting positive effects. Culturally sustainable tourism (CST- 2019) discusses the complex relations between culture, and tourism, and how planners, architects, and main actors and help in conveying and spreading the right perspective of the importance and role of cultural tourism and how to maintain it.

As a means to reduce the difficulties that many researchers from around the globe face because of their geographical locations, which sometime makes it impossible for them to attend a desired conference, #IEREK seeks to achieve an easy and possible solution through #Video Conferencing in its upcoming International Conference on "Cultural Sustainable Tourism (#CST)".

IEREK – International Experts for Research Enrichment and Knowledge Exchange – is an international institution that is concerned with the exchange of knowledge and enhancing research through organizing and managing conferences in all fields of knowledge.
