Dies de Dansa dance festival, Barcelona: Korea focus

Website: <http://www.marato.com/>

DIES DE DANSA is an international contemporary dance festival in urban spaces. For five days July 1-5 the festival fills open spaces in Barcelona. In 2010 there is a special focus on contemporary dance from Korea. It is a free annual cultural project born in Barcelona, which is part of the GREC Festival de Barcelona. During five days buildings, streets, parks and plazas flood with life in this encounter between dance, urban space and community. Dies de Dansa 2010 has a special focus on contemporary dance from Korea with performances by:

- sun-A-dance
- Lee In-soo Dance Project
- Park Soon-ho Dance Project
- Chang-Mu Company/ Kim Sunmee
- Ye Hyo-sung, Kim Seol-jin & Lee Eun-kyung
- Lee Eun-kyung
- Clash 66 - Sebastien Ramirez/Hyun-jung Wang

and

- Sharmini Tharmaratnam - India

as well as many other dancers from Catalunya, Spain, Europe and Latin America. Dies de Dansa organises workshops and performances. DIES DE DANSA is a founder member of CQD – Ciudades Que Danzan / Dancing Cities, an international network of over 32 dance festivals in urban spaces, which pursues the exchange, promotion and collaboration of brand new projects between its members.
