Goethe Institut | reflections on a post-corona time from intellectuals and artists

Reflections on a post-corona-time - DAY-AFTERTHOUGHTS. The Goethe Institut presents some responses from intellectuals and artists around the world, reflecting on our current situation and what may lay ahead.

A virus is showing us how globally networked and yet how fragile our public life is. What does the pandemic mean to and for each of us and for society as a whole?

Here are some responses from intellectuals and artists around the world with regard to our present predicament and what lies in store for us afterwards.
