Assembly

 Biennial_IBA-ASSEMBLY Join the General Assembly of the International Biennial Association (IBA) in Berlin, Germany on July 10-13, 2014. The 4-day conference during IBA's General Assembly is organised by the Berlin Biennale for Contemporary Art. The 4-day event in Berlin with the focus on the inaugural ceremony of IBA will also be open to the wider public, consisting of conferences and panels. Bringing together professionals to participate in discussions on the current issues; how biennials need to respond to the social urgencies, local environment and politics in the midst of challenges that face biennials today. Become an IBA Member: As an IBA member you will be part of an international network of professionals within the art world. You will have access to all other IBA members through an online interactive society, giving you the latest news on upcoming events, openings, curators and much more. All members will receive an annual membership card that provides invitations to all events organized and hosted by IBA along with receiving publications produced by IBA. Being part of IBA, you will receive invitations to the annual General Assembly allowing you the opportunity to meet fellow peers within the biennial and art-related fields from across the world. As individual and institutional members, you will be able to vote for the representatives of the IBA and be an active participant of the association. You can apply through the IBA website www.biennialassociation.org or alternatively download an application form and submit it to the IBA Office.
