International Coalition for Arts, Human Rights & Social Justice

International Coalition for Arts, Human Rights & Social Justice

A network of aligned people, organizations, movements and intersecting networks

The

International Coalition for Arts, Human Rights & Social Justice is a network of aligned people and organisations who represent social and cultural movements, human rights organisations, artist collectives and associations, artist residencies, host cities and communities of conscience.

We seek to create an international pluralistic, intersectoral network to exchange ideas and enhance capacity, and to achieve both joint and individual concrete actions within a common vision and strategy and according to common principles. In keeping with these principles, we will raise awareness of the power of the Arts and Human Rights and Social Justice collaboration/cooperation; strengthen and develop existing projects committed to the Arts, Human Rights and Social Justice; and actively lobby for defined objectives and opportunities jointly or individually identified by coalition members.

Seventeen organisations worldwide form the founding coalition members. The Coalition is administered by freeDimensional and artdialog in 2010/11.
