EU-China People-to-People dialogue

On 10 November 2020, the European Union and China met online for the fifth edition of the EU-China High-Level People-to-People dialogue. Launched in 2012, the dialogue brings together decision-makers and practitioners in the areas of education, culture, youth, sport and gender to exchange ideas and good practice on how China and the EU can work together, also addressing areas of common concern.

Following the meeting, the two sides adopted a Joint Press Statement, including a statement on cultural relations:

"In the field of culture, both sides agreed to exchange good practice and strengthen cooperation on cultural heritage, notably its preservation during urban regeneration and renewal. It was also agreed to promote cooperation intellectual exchanges in various forms and fora, such as festivals and book fairs."
