21st anniversary KIFT (Keochang International Festival of Theatre) linking themes of nature, human and theatre. 45 teams from all over the world, including productions from Hungary, Slovakia, Japan and Germany. Some 205 plays will be performed in the 2010 edition of KIFT, constructing, deconstructing and reconstructing human and nature in theatre form. Work is performed outdoors in beautiful natural environment settings. Among the officially invited foreign theatre groups are Presidance company (Hungary), Slovak Chamber Theatre (Slovakia), Collol (Japan) with Magic Man (Germany) in the Foreign Project Theatre category. Applications for 2011 KIFT are due in March 2011. Read the Korea Times article 'Summer theater festivals beckon' and learn more about another hot Korean summer festival - Miryang Summer Performing Arts Festival (July 22 - August 1) where 31 works by 30 theatre companies from England, Germany and Japan will be presented.
