The KOFFIA Korean Film Festival is back for a 2nd year with an expanded line-up of 16 sessions over 6 days between August 24th-29th in Sydney and an extra date in Melbourne between September 10th-13th. From gangster mayhem and bloody revenge pics, to award-winning indie drama and comedy showcases, there is truly something for everyone's taste. KOFFIA will take you on a thrilling ride of Korean cinema, covering the latest and greatest in contemporary hits, as well as a selection of classics to choose from. If you like your films dramatic, your action unique, and your storylines bold, then KOFFIA is for you. Join us at Dendy Opera Quays Cinemas on the shores of Circular Quay, Sydney or at the Australian Centre for the Moving Image, Melbourne as we put on a Korean cultural experience with industry forums, musical acts, cultural performances and so much more! KOFFIA offers a first-hand chance for people to satisfy their hunger for drama, so don't miss it! The Korean Film Festival in Australia is organised by the Korean Cultural Office. See www.koffia.com.au for session details.
