Loch Ness Festival kicks off this July

Loch Ness Film Festival  loch-ness-film-festival3 is back this July with its 4rd edition! This Independent grassroots festival will be held from 26th to 28th July 2013 at The Craigmonie Centre in Drumnadrochit, The Loch Ness Backpackers Lodge in Lewiston and the Abriachan Hall. The first ever Loch Ness Film Festival debuted September 2010 at various venues. It screened everything from shorts, features, documentaries to established previously released films at the box office. The range of films screened are diverse and come from every corner of the globe to just somebody around the corner from where we live and to somebody with no budget to someone with high budgets and funding. Loch Ness Film Festival is not a competitive film festival with awards and competitions, everyone who makes a film and wants to screen their film is a winner. The festival is now a (SCIO) Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation, registered charity number is SC042926 and is basically a non-profit film festival that covers it's costs through local sponsorship, submission fees and with any funding or donations received. All screenings and events at the Loch Ness Film Festival are free. Click here for the complete festival program!
