[London Exhibition] Masterpieces of Chinese Painting

Masterpieces of Chinese Painting

The Victoria and Albert Museum, London, presents, Masterpieces of Chinese Painting 700 - 1900, a once-in-a-lifetime chance to see rare surviving works of art drawn from collections around the world. Explore over 70 of the finest examples of Chinese painting, from small-scale intimate works by monks and literati through to a 14-metre-long scroll painting, many of which are shown together for the first time.

Charting the evolving styles and subjects of painting over a 1200 year period, the exhibition includes figure paintings on silk for religious sites, landscape painting and the introduction of Western influences. A significant number of these masterpieces have never been exhibited in the UK before, from banners, albums and scrolls created for a variety of settings to the materials that reveal the traditional process and techniques of painting on silk.

The exhibition will be held from 26 October 2013 to 19 January 2014.
