Lumieres Hong Kong Festival

光·影·香港夜 / Lumieres Hong Kong festival is making its debut on 23, 24 and 25 November 2017!

During the 3 night event, landmarks sites and buildings of Soho, Central and Tsim Sha Tsui are becoming the hosts of light installations, video projections, art pieces by renowned local and international light artists.

Inspired by and in partnership with the mega Fête des Lumières de Lyon (France), 光·影·香港夜 / Lumieres Hong Kong will feature 3 nights of light installations, video projections, art pieces and dining to experience Hong Kong in a bright new light.

Landmarks sites and buildings of the city central areas will become the canvas for some of the most renowned local and international light artists to showcase their vision of the city's very own culture.

Completely free, the festival will be offering activities and celebrations for all generations to rediscover the city's heritage and architecture through the medium of light.

Join the Festival to experience Hong Kong's heritage, architecture and dining under a bright new light!
