CulturePolis is hosting the 2nd Roundtable Meeting of 2024, titled 'Mapping Creative Skills Gaps in Greece and Cyprus', supported by the EU Creative Skills Week.

In an era of rapid technological advancement and changing social needs, the cultural and creative sector plays an increasingly crucial role in shaping our collective identity, promoting innovation, and boosting economic growth. However, this sector faces significant challenges, one of the most pressing being the gaps in creative skills.

The 2nd CulturePolis Roundtable Meeting aims to bring together representatives from academia, the cultural and creative sectors, local government, and civil society to engage in a constructive dialogue.

Key Discussion Points include:

- Identifying major skill gaps in the cultural and creative sectors
- Highlighting challenges and showcasing best practices and successful initiatives
- Exploring innovative solutions for skill development
- Co-creating strategies to bridge the skills gap

The meeting will be held online on 17 September 2024 from 17:00 to 19:30 (Greece time) in English.
