[/caption] Ask a curator, is an innovative British video platform that allows individuals to ask questions to curators and receive video responses. The platform was developed in partnership with participating museums and galleries. Partner museums include Birmingham Museums & Art Gallery, Manchester Museum and Musee de Cluny

Museums and galleries not only house fascinating collections, they are also the home to leading experts who love to share their passion for art, history and science. Ask a Curator brings together these experts to share their knowledge through video answers to your questions, taking you behind the scenes in museums and galleries around the globe. Browse questions, discover museums and galleries and ask your own questions. <http://www.askacurator.com>
