St.ART Delhi is an urban art festival that brings together some of the best Indian and International street artists for a month of murals, installations, performances, workshops, walks and talks on the streets. The festival runs 18 January - 28 February 2014 and aims to promote street art and graffiti on Indian landscapes, as well as provide a collaborative platform for artists from all over the world. The Goethe Institut/Max Mueller Bhavan and the Polish Institute are among the supporters of the festival and are hosting St. ART Delhi events.
