[caption id="attachment_7988" align="alignright" width="374" caption="The English premiere of Norwegian Wood will open the festival"][/caption] The Pan-Asia Film Festival returns to London with emerging talent showcasing work alongside established filmmakers. Organised by Asia House, with selected feature-length films and documentaries representing 13 countries. Screenings open on March 2 with the English premiere of Norwegian Wood by Academy Award nominated Vietnamese-French director Tran Anh Hung. A special discussion about the making of the movie at Asia House will see one of the stars of the film, Oscar nominated actress Rinko Kikuchi, joining the film's director and composer-musician Jonny Greenwood (Radiohead) on March 1. As well as film screenings there will be seminars, masterclasses and Q&S. For more information visit www.asiahouse.org
