In

partnership with the festival Paris quartier d'été, the Musee du Quai Branly in Paris is hosting a KOREAN WEEKEND from 19-21 July, with free open air music and dance performances. Concerts are offered by two Korean ensembles: Be-Being and Noreum Machi. Be-Being draws on Buddhist and court music, Noreum Machi on popular music, for their inspiration and offer amazing, spectacular contemporary reinterpretations for the public from this musical heritage. Open air theatre with free places, within the limits of available spaces.

Note: information only available in FRENCH on Museum website.

With the support of Ministère de la Culture du Tourisme et des Sports de la République de Corée, et du Korea Arts Management Service (KAMS). Image: Noreum Machi
