25 Hours

Festival

Different ways of seeing, different ways of gathering – on 8 December 16:00 CET - 9 December 17:00 CET join us for the 25th Anniversary of the Prince Claus Fund as changemakers around the world take center stage for 25 hours, celebrating human agency with people who have inspired the Fund.

Tune in to enjoy the variety of thoughts and art forms; you'll see Apichatpong Weerasethakul's dreamy film "Mekong River", Djamila Ribeiro's keynote speech questioning the founding myths of Brazilian society, photographer Newsha Tavoklian's introspective work "For the Sake of Calmness" and a special fashion show by Diamantina Arcoiris. That's just a taste of what's to come in this extraordinary festival of culture, featuring views that will surprise, entertain, challenge you.

A look back at the Fund and a glimpse of what's coming in the future. Curated by internationally renowned artistic director Keng Sen Ong.

Miss an hour or artist you really wanted to see? Many of the presentations will be available later on the Prince Claus Fund website!
