Youth Symphony Orchestra of Russia

The Youth Symphony Orchestra of Russia led by the eminent violist and conductor Yuri Bashmet comes to Singapore for a concert on 12 September in its debut Asian tour.

From Russia With Love

Yuri Bashmet and the Youth Symphony Orchestra of Russia

Formed in 2012, the Orchestra has performed throughout Russia including the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics, and at the concert halls of Berlin, Brussels, Geneva and Vienna to critical acclaim. With 90 young musicians handpicked from auditions held in cities across Russia, the Orchestra is set to thrill audiences with its heart-stirring performance.

Meet the remarkable future makers of classical music from Russia and Singapore in a celebration of 50 years of friendship between both countries.
