Switzerland | Zürcher Theater Spektakel festival

 SATT_1_B125_02 The 2013 performing arts festival Zürcher Theater Spektakel in Zurich, Switzerland features an array of performers from Asia, including India, Korea, Myanmar and Philippines. The international programme includes performers from Europe and beyond. Dance and performance programme includes: Surjit Nongmeikapam from Manipur, Sung-Im Her & Su-Mi Jang from Korea, Moe Satt from Myanmar (image), Eisa Jocson from Philippines.

The festival runs 15 August - 1 September in Zurich.

Founded in 1980 as an annual international meeting of independent theatre groups, the Zürcher Theater Spektakel quickly evolved into a cultural event of international appeal. Today it ranks among the most important European festivals for the contemporary performing arts. This success story has been based on consistent and artistically outstanding programming, a unique atmosphere, the large number of engaged and open-minded spectators. For over 30 years these ingredients have made the Theater Spektakel a popular venue for both renowned and upcoming theatre and dance companies from all over the world.
