The creative workshop with University of the Arts London entitled ‘A human sanctuary in the heart of the city’ will be held by the British Council Vietnam in Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi. After the events, promising students may get the chance to be interviewed by UAL representatives for either Foundation or Undergraduate studying opportunities. Art portfolios should be brought to the interview.

The workshop is suitable for A-Level students, as well as Undergraduate and Postgraduate applicants, interested in portfolio/praxis-based art and design courses or non-portfolio based creative courses.

University of the Arts London (UAL) is one of the world’s most prominent Universities for studying art, design, fashion, communications and performing arts. The reputation of UAL is also assured thanks to its constituent colleges - the Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design and London College of Communication.
