Villa Tokyo

VILLA TOKYO is an international joint project involving ten European contemporary art galleries in cooperation with Japanese partners: the Taka Ishii Gallery, the Tomio Koyama Gallery and New Tokyo Contemporaries - an energetic group of seven contemporary art galleries at the heart of Tokyo's growing Kyobashi area which has a strong potential to spur artistic development. The galleries will share a building for a week-long program of exhibitions and many additional events: concerts, performances, screenings and formal and informal talks by Japanese and European artists and musicians. See calendar of events Organised by: Raster / Raster Foundation Concept: Łukasz Gorczyca & Michał Kaczyński Project Manager: Kamila Bondar Project Coordinators: Agata Jastrzębek, Takayuki Kubota and Ewa Rudnicka Visual Identification: Jakub de Barbaro Source: Villa Raster
