The World Monuments Fund has announced that Yangon's "Historic City Center" (downtown Yangon) will be added to their 2014 "Watch List". This is a major step towards international recognition of downtown Yangon as an international as well as Myanmar heritage area.

Every two years since 1996, the World Monuments Watch is a call to action for cultural heritage around the globe that is at risk from the forces of nature and the impact of social, political, and economic change.
