Programme

In an effort to shed light upon Korean Studies, the National Museum of Korea offers its 8th annual fellowship, entitled the 2020 Museum Network Fellowship. The programme is designed to promote the advancement of museum-related Korean studies overseas.

ELIGIBILITY

Given the programme's purpose, applicants must be non-Korean citizens. Thus candidates should not hold any relevant previous, concurrent and subsequent fellowships or academic research positions provided by any Korean institutions. Eligible candidates are overseas curators with degree on Korean / Asian Studies, working at museums or museum-related institutions, or researchers who have published thesis or articles on Korean / Asian Studies between 2015~2019(for 5 years). This is a bilingual programme in which proficiency in English is required and fluency in Korean is also a plus for participation.

PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

The programme will provide the participants with valuable opportunities to gain field experience in Korean culture through comprehensive lectures on museum related Korean studies, workshops, research and site visits around the country.

More than 4 Lectures and Workshop (may include):

- Buddhist Art of Koea
- Paintings of Korea
- Ceramics of Korea
- Ancient Architecture of Korea
- Archaeology of Korea
