

OPPORTUNITIES > Artists' International Development Fund (England) |
focus on Korea

DEADLINE
13 APR 2016

Artists' International Development Fund (England) | focus on Korea

 The Artists' International Development fund offers early stage development opportunities for individual freelance and self-employed artists and/or creative practitioners (including, for example: producers, curators, publishers, editors, translators, choreographers) based in England to spend time building links with artists, organisations and/or creative producers in another country.

For the next round of applications (Round 12), a priority is given to applications proposing visits to South Korea. The AIDF will spend around 25% of the available budget for this round only on applications focused on South Korea.

Applications from eligible cultural practitioners based in England to any country they choose to visit are also welcome.

Round 12 - Deadline: 13 April 2016

Artists may apply for small grants (minimum of £1,000 up to £5,000). The Artists' international development fund has three funding rounds a year.

The Artists' International Development fund is jointly funded by the British Council and Arts Council England
