The Singapore International Foundation's 'Arts for Good Fellowship' is organised annually to grow the Arts for Good ecosystem, by fostering a community of practice that harnesses the power of arts and culture to create positive social change. Applications are open to applicants of any age or nationality for Arts for Good Fellowship 2019.

The Fellowship brings together cross-sector professionals such as artists, art administrators and programmers from the social sector on a programme comprising webinars and two exchange programmes. Upon completion, Fellows join a global alumni where they continue to connect, support and collaborate with one another.

During the duration of the programme, Fellows participate in webinars and two exchange programmes to two global cities.

Through the Arts for Good Fellowship, Fellows will

- Build capacity and learn key skills and knowledge to run an effective Arts for Good initiative
- Connect with professionals from an international ecosystem that is keen in harnessing the arts for social change

In this edition, the Fellowship will comprise the following components:

- Online Webinars
- Two Exchange Programmes to two global cities:
  - Singapore Exchange Programme (October/November 2019)*
  - Delhi, India Exchange Programme (February 2020)*

*dates to be confirmed by June 2019
