Are you a designer or frontend developer?

Would you like to work with us on our website?

We would like to hear from you!

ASEF culture360 is looking for designers and developers to help in the revamp of the website in order to provide a better service to our community.

We would like to:

Refresh our existing design to make it mobile compliant and fully responsive

Migrate our WordPress website to an up to date CMS/backend using community modules and plugins

You can find all the details about the technical requirements here:
