Beijing - open call for NIGHTLIFE residency

China Residencies, I: project space and The Neighbourhood are calling for DJs, producers, artists, and performers to work in Beijing for a fully-funded two month residency in February & March 2018, in the ever-growing and increasingly idiosyncratic nightclub and electronic music communities in Beijing and China.

China Residencies, I: project space and The Neighbourhood will connect the resident with key protagonists who are leading the discourses on and fusion of visual art & nightclub culture. During the residency, there will be opportunities to perform, exhibit and experiment with the local scene.

This application is open to all, there are no restrictions on artists' mediums, age, nationality, ethnicity, gender, or any other criteria.

This is a wide open call, all people with a creative practice involving art, music, nightlife, and parties are invited to apply!

The chosen resident will get:

- ✨ A round trip flight to Beijing
- ✨ Two months accommodation and workspace at i:project space in February & March 2018
- ✨ $1,000 USD stipend
- ✨ Introductions to local collaborators and project support from our three supporting organizations
- ✨ Open Studio, resident nights at nightclubs & spaces to perform or exhibit across Beijing

Deadline for applications: 15 December
