Belgium | Fondation Thalie 2021 residencies

Fondation Thalie in Brussels has opened applications for a 2021 research residency for visual arts and creative writing. The programme is open to visual artists, authors, poets, videographers, or performers, living outside Belgium. Residencies last one month and take place in the period February-June 2021.

You are a visual artist, author, poet, videographer, performer, living outside Belgium and you wish to experiment in your research and share it in an inspiring house, with modernist architecture from the 20s, send us your project!

The Fondation Thalie provides a writing workspace with the opportunity for a public presentation within the programme in the form of reading, workshop, projection or performance. The restitution will be subject to an additional budget.

Residence conditions

- A single room, shared kitchen and bathroom as well as a 45m2 shared work space
- The round trip from the residence of the residents is supported by the Foundation
- A 900 €grant for a full month of residency
- The library and the Foundation's areas are available during the day
- Duration of the residency: 1 month.

Selection criteria

This open call is for artists (already represented by a gallery) and writers (having already been published) without age limit or nationality.

A jury chaired by Nathalie Guiot will select the laureates.
