Connections through Culture Mobility Grants SE Asia + UK | 2nd call

The second round of the British Council's Connections Through Culture quarterly mobility grants to promote arts and cultural exchange between the UK and Southeast Asia is open till 4 November 2019. The first round of applications finished in September 2019.

This arts mobility grant is a first-of-its kind project to spark innovative ways for participants from six Southeast Asian countries and the UK to collaborate through the arts. A bilateral grants programme, it is designed to seed exciting cultural exchanges between artists, arts professionals and members of arts organisations and collectives, and nurture cooperation and long-lasting relationships.

See the successful grantees of the first round here. The announcement of grantees of the second round will be on 9 December 2019 for April-June 2020 mobilities. A third round will open at the end of the year.
