Bulgaria | Plovdiv Facade Video Festival | open call

Media and video artists from all over the world are invited to send videos for the fourthly edition of Facade Video Festival that will be held in Plovdiv, Bulgaria between 11 and 15 September 2013.

Facade Video Festival is an annual video art exhibition where videos are projected onto the walls of houses both in the old town of Plovdiv and in the neighbourhoods. Facade Video Festival aims to create an interface between viewers and artists, between visual arts and the city. There are no restrictions concerning the theme.

ELIGIBILITY. Any author can participate with max. 3 videos. Videos submitted must belong to the category of video art. They should have been finalised after 1 January 2010, come in as a single-channel version and be copyright controlled by the artist.

THE EVENT WILL BE JURIED. A jury will award the best video with a one-month-residency during 2014 (including travel costs, 1000 Euro - allowance) in the Art Today lab for creating a site specific video art project which will be shown at the Facade Video Festival in 2014.

NOTIFICATION OF JURY RESULTS. Everyone who enters the festival can check the results uploaded on the festival's website after 30 June 2013.
