2014

 On Friday, May 2, 2014, the 10th edition of the International Documentary Film Festival DOCVILLE, the largest documentary film festival in Belgium, starts. Entries are now being invited for the national and international competition at the festival. During the 9 days of DOCVILLE, audiences will enjoy a fine selection of brand new documentary films, a lot of events, debates, Q&A's and conferences. The festival takes place in Leuven, a small but lively and vibrant city at the very center of Belgium. Leuven is the capital of the province of Flemish Brabant in the Flemish Region, Belgium, just 25 km near Brussels, the Belgian and European capital.

No entry fee is asked. Deadline for entry is March 1st, 2014. Click here to submit!
