Center Stage Korea 2017 | international open call

Special grant program for presenting Korean performance 2017 Center Stage Korea international open call centerstagekorea2017

International presenters (festival organizer, venue, or network) seeking to organize a program (March 2017 - January 2018) featuring Korean artists/groups are invited to apply for grant support from Center Stage Korea.

Through cooperation with festival organizers, venues, and networks, Center Stage Korea introduces Korea's diverse performing arts to audiences around the world, promoting cultural enrichment and enhanced mutual understanding and exchange in the arts.

The proposed project must provide appropriate remuneration to the Korean artists/groups (e.g., performance fees, accommodation, per diems).

Grant support for international airfare, freight costs will be directly allocated to the invited artists/companies of the proposals selected under the programme. KAMS will provide assistance with the planning of additional programming related to Korean Artist Feature projects and also provide partial funding.

Please read the full guidelines to understand the eligible projects: Guide and proposal Center Stage Korea 2017

Deadline for applications: 30 November 2016
