Cultural Innovation International Prize

The Cultural Innovation International Prize is a biennial competition organised by the Centre de Cultura Contemporània de Barcelona (CCCB) with the aim of incentivising projects that explore the potential cultural scenarios of the coming years through research and practice.

The first edition of the Prize ties in with the 20th anniversary of the CCCB. For this call for entries, corresponding to 2014-2015, the theme is Audience/s.

To take part in the Prize, submit a project that has not previously been presented for the creation, production or presentation of contents, whose format or form of management provides an innovative response to a specific key issue for each competition. The author or authors of the winning project will receive a prize of 10.000 euros. If appropriate, the project can also be developed at the CCCB, which will provide the necessary support.

The Prize is open to everyone aged 18 or over, of any nationality and resident in any country, who can enter individually or collectively in the form of a non-profit organization. The submitted projects will be assessed by an expert committee and an international jury made up of specialists in the subject in question.
