culture360 Media partnerships 2020: new call out!

Deadline: 15 August 2020

In these unprecedented times we are living due to the Covid-19 pandemic, culture360.ASEF.org is committed to continue supporting on-site and virtual arts events.

Would you like to partner with us?

culture360.ASEF.org is now inviting applications from interested arts organisations that would like to showcase their upcoming events both on-site & virtual (such as arts conferences, festivals, workshops, webinars, online performances and exhibitions) on our arts portal through a media partnership with us. We offer a wide outreach & visibility for your event among the arts communities in Asia and Europe.

What is culture360.ASEF.org?
culture360.ASEF.org is an online platform offering up-to-date information on arts, culture & heritage from 51 countries in Asia & Europe. Publically funded by the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM), culture360.ASEF.org is for artists, cultural professionals, policy makers & anyone interested in international cultural co-operation.

Why a media partnership?

As part of our mandate, we give visibility to innovative arts events from under-represented or less-visible countries, regions & artistic disciplines projects. We do this through media partnerships with interesting arts events in Asia and Europe. Since 2012, we have offered over 30 media partnerships to key events in both regions. We would like to continue supporting more such initiatives through this competitive open call process, especially during the difficult times we are experiencing due to the Covid-19 global pandemic.

What people say about the media partnership

Hayriye Ruzgar
Communications Officer, Buffer Fringe Performing Arts Festival (Cyprus)

“Having the media partnership with culture360.asef.org enabled us to introduce audiences to a community beyond our usual reach. As a young festival taking place in a divided, small, European island located in the Mediterranean, it is not easy to attract artists and followers from far. This partnership helped us greatly to start shortening the distance with Asian countries, that we could clearly observe from the increased number of applications from these countries in the next edition.”

Inken Bornholdt
Marketing & Project Manager, TodayArt (The Netherlands)

“The media partnership with culture360. ASEF.org worked extremely well for TodayArt. TodayArt is a network organisation, with an annual festival based in the Netherlands, focusing on music, visual and immersive art. In 2019 ASEF played a key role in bringing TodayArt together with The Arts Council Mongolia, which lead to an extended collaboration with Ulaanbaatar International Media Art Festival. The content-driven media partnership thoughtfully amplified this unique Asia-Europe collaboration between our two organisations. We seek to continue partnering with ASEF for our future festival campaigns and activities beyond.”

What type of events do we support?
The media partnership with culture360.ASEF.org is for arts events ONLY. They may take various forms and include both physical and virtual activities: conferences, festivals, workshops, online performances and webinars. What geographical areas?

All events taking place in ASEM member countries are welcome to apply. Special attention will be given to countries/regions that are less visible within Asia and Europe.
