Asia 2014 | call for documentary filmmakers

 12107876-STANDARD

DocNet Southeast Asia is a programme initiated and coordinated by the Goethe-Institut and funded by the EuropeAid programme "Investing in People". The programme aims to support documentary filmmaking in Southeast Asia and to professionalize and unite varied local initiatives to make the missing voice of the region heard.

The DocNet Southeast Asia is hosting DocNet Campus 2014. This is a fantastic opportunity for documentary filmmakers to attain expert insight from international experts into getting their project from the development stage to completion. The event takes place in Jakarta from April 21-27 2014 and is open to South East Asian filmmakers whom currently have projects on the go. The week long masterclasses incorporate tools on funding applications, marketing expertise, distribution assistance and a number of other masterclasses ideal for filmmakers at any stage of their production.

This is a not-to-be missed chance for filmmakers in the region. Deadline for applications is March 6, 2014 and further details are over on the DocNet website.
