ENCATC calls for contributions

Two calls for contributions of articles from ENCATC, the European network on cultural management and policy. With different deadlines, researchers, cultural operators, academics and students are invited to contribute to encatcSCHOLAR and the ENCATC Journal of Cultural Management and Policy.

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS: /encatcSCHOLAR, issue #09

ENCATC, the European network on cultural management and policy has an open call for /encatcSCHOLAR issue #09 "Click, Connect and Collaborate! New directions in sustaining cultural networks". This issue's focus is inspired by the 25th ENCATC Congress last 27-30 September 2017.

Designed to be a unique tool for education and lifelong learning on arts and cultural management and policy, /encatcSCHOLAR is composed of articles, exclusive interviews, case studies, conference reports and more. It was created to satisfy the growing demand for the latest teaching material from academics, researchers, cultural operators and students in over 40 countries around the world.

In 2018, innovative and creative contributions are welcome that reflect the real value of cultural networks in today's world of digitization and internationalisation, questioning what networks can do for a diverse cultural sector and for the field of cultural management and policy, or how the sustainability of cultural networks matters for the way we work, connect and collaborate today and in the future.

The deadline is 15 March 2018.
